

AREA NONPROFITS GIVEN $1 MILLION TO CONTINUE WORK; OTHERS SEEK NEW FUNDS

Posted by Ashley Caldwell | Mar 31, 2020 | Community, Featured, Health, Life, News | 0 |

Foundation for Delaware County

Foundation for Delaware County

Delaware County Foundation

Delaware County Foundation

By AshleyCaldwell

acaldwell@myspiritnews.com

More than $1 million in grants has been awarded to more than 50 nonprofit organizations to support their work as part of a competitive grants process that began prior to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The Foundation for Delaware County said it awarded $1,055,488 million in grants for nonprofit organizations that work in areas of economic stability, education, health and healthcare, the 2020 Census, and more. Meanwhile, the foundation also announced the creation of The Delaware County COVID-19 Response Fund totaling $100,000. Applications for that are also being received by the foundation from nonprofit organizations needing support during.....To read more of this story pick-up The SPIRIT at Wawa or a retail location near you.